

I am not in support of allowing business relationships to contact me without me contacting them first. It is very annoying to have soliciting phone calls while I am eating or trying to do work during the day or evenings. I would rather receive it by mail so I can review at my convenience.